

NOT PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BUT SURRENDER, IS WILSON'S ANSWER

NO TERMS OF ANY KIND WILL BE MADE WITH THE HUN MILITARY MASTERS

QUESTION OF ARMISTICE LEFT TO ALLIES AND MILITARY ADVISERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—President Wilson has submitted the German plea for an armistice and peace to the allies, and at the same time has informed Berlin that there can be no armistice except upon terms that would make it impossible for Germany to renew hostilities.

While consenting to deal further with the present authorities in Germany, the president has given them this warning:

"If it (The United States) must deal with the military masters and monarchical autocrats of Germany now, or if it is likely to have to deal with them later in regard to the international obligations of the German empire, it must demand not peace negotiations, but surrender. Nothing can be gained by leaving this essential thing unsaid."

The president's reply to the last German note was handed to the charge of the Swiss legation tonight for transmission to the German government. It accedes to the request that he take up with the allies the proposals of the new spokesmen of the German people, but does it with notice that virtual surrender of the Teutonic armies will be the price demanded for interruption of the beating now being administered.

Wilson's Note Also Sent to Allies
In transmitting the matter to the allies, the president says, he has suggested that if they are disposed to effect peace on his terms and principles now accepted by the present German authorities, the American and allied military advisers be asked if they deem such an armistice possible from a military point of view to submit such terms as will fully protect the interests of the people involved and ensure to the associated governments, the unrestricted power to enforce peace on the conditions accepted. The president says he feels he cannot decline to take up the question of an armistice having received solemn and explicit assurances of the German government that it accepts the terms of peace enunciated by him; that the desire to discuss their application comes from ministers speaking for an overwhelming majority of the German people and that the German armed forces will observe the humane rules of civilized warfare on land and sea. He ignores entirely the German protests and denials in response to his statement that an armistice could not be considered while the German army and navy continued their atrocities.

As to the authority of the new spokesman of the German people he speaks, as the note says, "without any attempt to soften what may seem harsh words and tells the men with whom he is dealing and thru them the German people why such extraordinary safeguards must be demanded before hostilities can cease."

Demand Unconditional Surrender

Significant and important as the proposed constitutional changes seem to be he declares, it does not appear that the principle of a government responsible to the German people has yet been worked out and it is evident that the people have no means of commanding the acquiescence of the military authorities. He reminds the Germans that the power of the king of Prussia (the kaiser) to control the policy of the empire is unimpaired and concludes with the warning that if this power is to be dealt with the United States and the allies can demand nothing but surrender.

As the note was dispatched, Secretary Tumulty at the White House gave emphasis to the assurance given by all members of the government that no interruption of the military program is contemplated. He did this by making public the correspondence between Secretary Baker and President Wilson showing that more than 2,000,000 American soldiers have embarked for the war overseas.

Officials Approve Wilson's Course

Approval of the president's action was voiced everywhere among officials who declared the note demanded surrender which America and the allies insist and at the same time held up to the German people a picture of their situation in a way likely to hasten their rise to throw out the kaiser and his war lords completely.

In congress the expressions of leaders indicated a divided opinion. Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee approved the note in unqualified terms, declaring it called for surrender and would create a political crisis in Germany. On the other hand, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader and ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee expressed regret that the president had entered upon any discussion with the German government and declared any negotiations should follow a report from General Foch that the German armies had surrendered.

BRITISH TAKE 2,000 PRISONERS IN BELGIUM

Attack South of Valenciennes of Strategic Importance

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Two thousand prisoners were taken by the British in today's attack. The British advanced from one to two miles, gaining the high ground overlooking the Harpers Valley. Some guns were taken.

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM.
Oct. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—The attack of the British third and fourth armies on a wide front south of Valenciennes today is of vital strategic importance. The allied salient menaces the German lines all the way to Holland and if it is widened it will have a tremendous effect also on the enemy front to the south.

Masses of British cannon moved up during the comparative lull of the past few days, early today loosened tons of steel at the enemy's front and rear areas freely. Later all the guns concentrated in a crash barrage behind which the infantry advanced in an early morning fog, storming the hurriedly constructed enemy defenses.

German resistance strongly, especially machine gunners. The enemy artillery fire was generally weak, indicating his guns had been moved some miles east to the line known as the Hermann standing place. This shows that the German command did not have faith that the exhausted infantry would be able to hold the positions attacked today.

The town of Roamerles was taken early in the attack, marking an advance of nearly two miles northeast of Solesmes.

North of Valenciennes the Germans are resisting allied advance with heavy long range artillery fire all the way to Tournai. North of Tournai British patrols have crossed the Scheldt at several places especially Pecq and Nivelles. Prisoners are being taken all along the line.

Wilson's Reply to Latest German Note

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The statement follows:

"The secretary of state makes public the following:

"From the Secretary of State to the Charge d'Affaires ad interim in charge of German interests in the United States: 'Department of State, Oct. 23, 1918.

"Sir:

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 22nd transmitting a communication under date of the 20th from the German government and to advise you that the president has instructed me to reply thereto as follows:

"Having received the solemn and explicit assurance of the German government that it unreservedly accepts the terms of peace laid down in his address to the congress of the United States on the 8th of January, 1918, and the principles of settlement enunciated in his subsequent addresses, particularly the address of the 27th of September and that it desires to discuss the details of their application and that this wish and purpose emanated not from those who have hitherto dictated German policy and conducted the present war on Germany's behalf but from ministers who speak for the majority of the reichstag and for an overwhelming majority of the present German peoples; and having received also the explicit promise of the present German government that the humane rules of civilized warfare will be observed both on land and sea by the German armed forces, the President of the United States feels that he cannot decline to take up with the governments with which the government of the United States is associated the question of an armistice.

"He deems it his duty to say again, however, that the only armistice he would feel justified in submitting for consideration would be one which should leave the United States and the powers associated with her in a position to enforce any arrangements that may be entered into and to make a renewal of hostilities on the part of Germany impossible. The president has, therefore, transmitted his correspondence with the present German authorities to the governments with which the government of the United States is associated as a belligerent, with the suggestion that, if those governments are disposed to effect peace upon terms and principles indicated, their military advisers and the military advisers of the United States be asked to submit to the governments associated against the Germany the necessary terms of such an armistice as will fully protect the interests of the peoples involved and ensure to the associated governments the unrestricted power to safeguard and enforce the details of the peace to which the German government has agreed, provided they deem such an armistice possible from the military point of view. Should such terms of armistice be suggested, their acceptance by Germany will afford the best concrete evidence of her unequivocal acceptance of the terms and principles of peace from which the whole action proceeds.

"The president would deem himself lacking in candor did he not point out in the frankest possible terms the reason why extraordinary safeguards must be demanded. Significant and important as the constitutional changes seem to be which are spoken of by the German foreign secretary in his note of the 20th of October, it does not appear that the principle of a government responsible to the German people has yet been fully worked out or that any guarantees either exist or are in contemplation that the alterations of principle and of practice now partially agreed upon will be permanent. Moreover, it does not appear that the heart of the present difficulty has been reached. It may be that future wars have been brought under the control of the German people but the present war has not been; and it is with the present war that we are dealing.

"It is evident that the German people have no means of commanding the acquiescence of the military authorities of the empire in the popular will; that the power of the king of Prussia to control the policy of the empire is unimpaired; that the determining initiative still remains with those who have hitherto been the masters of Germany. Feeling that the whole peace of the world depends now on plain speaking and straightforward action, the president deems it his duty to say, without any attempt to soften what may seem harsh words, that the nations of the world do not and cannot trust the word of those who have hitherto been the masters of German policy, and to point out once more that in concluding peace and attempting to undo the infinite injuries and injustices of this war the government of the United States cannot deal with any but veritable representatives of the German people who have been assured of a genuine constitutional standing as the real rulers of Germany. If it must deal with the military masters and the monarchical autocrats of Germany now, or if it is likely to have to deal with them later in regard to the international obligations of the German empire, it must demand, not peace negotiations but surrender. Nothing can be gained by leaving this essential thing unsaid.

"Accept, sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

(Signed) "ROBERT LANSING, "Mr. Frederick Oederlin, "Charge d'Affaires of Switzerland, ad interim, "In charge of German interests in the United States."

Peace Moves of Kaiser Approved By Hindenburg

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE. Oct. 23.—(By The A. P.)—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg in an order to German officers, in the field referring to negotiations for an armistice declares he approves the peace moves and is obliged to support the government. He asks that the confidence reposed in him in the days of success be continued.

The German crown prince in an order to the group of armies under his command, reminds the officers of the responsibility they incur when they lose a position or modify the line. "These documents have fallen into the hands of the French.

"Political events of the past few days," says von Hindenburg, "have produced the most found impression upon the army notably upon the officers. It is my duty to support the government instituted by his majesty. I approve the steps taken toward peace. The German army has a superiority over all others in that the troops and officers have never engaged in politics. We desire to adhere to that principle. I expect that the confidence that was accorded me in the days of success will be all the stronger now."

The order of the crown prince is shorter and almost curt. It says: "The exchange of diplomatic notes gives me the occasion to recall my order according to which each officer in command engages his responsibility when he loses a position or modifies his lines if resistance without express orders."

Another order which emanates from German high command says:

"Diplomatic negotiations with a view to terminating the war have begun. Their conclusion will be all the more favorable in proportion as we seek in keeping the army well in hand in holding the ground conquered and in doing harm to the enemy. These principles should guide the direction of the combat in the days that are to follow."

All these documents were taken from the fifth Bavarian division.

AVIATORS BELIEVED TO BE PRISONERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Lieutenants Kenneth MacLeish of Glenview, Ill., and Artus L. Gates of Clinton, Iowa, naval aviators who have been missing for a number of days are believed to have been taken prisoner today by Vice-Admiral Sims. Lieutenant MacLeish went into action Oct. 14 with a squadron of American fliers against a number of enemy planes and has not since been heard from nor has his machine been found. Residents near the point where he was last seen said an American aviator was captured by the enemy.

Lieutenant Gates who was attached to a French squadron has been missing since October 4 and Vice-Admiral Sims reported his plane was found in such a condition as to indicate he made a good landing and burned his machine before being taken prisoner.

OVER TWO MILLION AMERICAN SOLDIERS ARE NOW OVERSEAS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Embarkation of 2,008,931 American soldiers to participate in the war overseas was disclosed by correspondence between Secretary Baker and President Wilson given out at the White House tonight at the same time that the president's reply to the German note was made public by the state department.

"I am sure that this will be a matter of deep gratification and assurance to the country," said the president, replying to a letter from Secretary Baker reporting on the number of men who have sailed from American ports to Oct. 21.

Secretary Baker's Letter to Wilson

The correspondence follows:

"War Department, Oct. 22, 1918.

"My Dear Mr. President:

"More than two million American soldiers have sailed from the ports in this country to participate in the war overseas. In reporting this fact to you I feel sure that you will be interested in the following data showing the progress of our military effort:

"In my letter of July 1st, 1918, I informed you that between May 8th, 1917, and June 30, 1918, over a million men had either been landed in France or were en route thereto. Since July 1st, 1918, embarkations by months have been as follows:

July	306,185
August	290,818
September	261,415
Oct. 1st to 21st	131,398

"Total 999,816
"Embarked to July 1, 1918 1,019,115

"Grand total 2,008,931

"In our overseas operations I feel that we have good reason to be proud and thankful of the results obtainable. Our losses have been exceedingly small, considering the size of the force transported, and this is due to the efficient protection given American convoys by the naval forces. We also have been greatly assisted in the despatch of troops abroad by the allocation of certain vessels from our allies, principally those of Great Britain.

"Sincerely yours,
"NEWTON D. BAKER,
"Secretary of War."

President's Reply to Secretary of War

"The White House, Washington D. C., Oct. 22, 1918.

"My Dear Mr. Secretary:

"I am very glad to have your letter of this morning reporting that more than two million American soldiers have sailed from the ports of this country to participate in the war overseas. I am sure that this will be a matter of deep gratification and reassurance to the country and that everyone will join me in congratulating the war and navy departments upon the steady accomplishment in this all-important application of force to the liberation of the world.

"Cordially and sincerely yours,

AMERICANS MEET HOT RESISTANCE FROM GERMANY

Stiffest Fighting of Meuse Offensive Under Way

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN. Oct. 23.—5 p. m.—(By The Associated Press.)—The stiffest fighting of the American offensive west of the Meuse was underway today. The line is swaying back and forth. In the region of Grand Pre on the Western end of the front, the Americans threw back repeated violent German counter-attacks.

On the northern edge of Grand Pre the Americans captured 52 prisoners including three officers. They also took eight enemy machine guns. With their backs to a great series of woods, the Bois de Bas and the Bois de Fourzeze included, the Germans are fighting for their lives. Prisoners assert that the woods are literally full of machine guns and guns of heavier caliber and these prisoners have expressed the opinion that the Americans can never capture Bourgoigne and the woods to the northwest. The American troops fought all Wednesday in the face of machine gun fire from Talm Farm to Hill 220, northwest of Grand Pre. Upon the slopes to the north of Grand Pre the German machine gun nests extended from Hill 204 to Belleveuse Farm.

North of Campignettul several light attacks by the Germans were repulsed. In one instance one German was wounded and two were captured. These men came forward calling "Kamerad!" then opened fire with rifles which had been strapped upon their backs. Light forces of infantry attacked immediately afterward when the Americans refused to rush forward in response to the kamikaze trick. At an early morning mist and smoke screen assisted the Americans who advanced for a distance of about two thirds of a mile at certain points and raised positions of advantage including ridges of either side of Grand Pre. During the night the Americans took 200 prisoners and others are now coming in.

The Germans are using for the most part machine guns and light artillery with plenty of gas. The enemy machine gun nests were pounded all day by the American artillery and by bombing machines.

DENIES REPORTS.
Amsterdam, Oct. 23.—The semi-official North German Gazette denies the report that the government of Denmark has sent a note to Germany or otherwise approached Germany regarding the question of Schleswig-Holstein.

Dutch newspapers of Sunday carried reports that Denmark had sent a note to Germany demanding that Germany carry out certain provisions of treaties between the two countries which gave the inhabitants of Schleswig-Holstein the right to decide whether they wished to be ruled by Germany or Denmark.

The JOURNAL'S SERVICE FLAG

her just punishment. Every man in America should recognize the menacing German peace offensive that is under way.

The efforts of our board of education regarding the rebuilding of the high school, destroyed by fire last winter, has brought out the fact that the replacement of buildings entirely burned are considered by the National Non-War Construction Board as identical with the construction of new buildings and will be permitted only where absolutely necessary in connection with the war program. Buildings partially burned may be repaired without a permit, if they can be built for a cost not to exceed $2,500.

Illinois' quota in the United War Work campaign, which begins Nov. 11 has been fixed at $12,490,000, and is to be divided among seven deserving objects: to the Young Men's Christian association, $100,000,000; to Young Women's Christian association, $15,000,000; to the National Catholic War Council, $30,000,000; to the Jewish Welfare Board, $3,500,000; to the War Camp Community Service, $15,000,000; to the American Library association, $3,500,000, and to the Salvation Army, $3,500,000.

Nearly all the important cities and 14 of the states have banished the German language from the schools. If Germany wants to deal with the rest of the world after this war is over, she will have to do it in the English language.

After all, the advocates of government ownership, who have gained a temporary ascendancy are the strongest foes of government ownership, for they are providing the evidence upon which the country will reject the whole socialistic scheme.

AFTER THE WAR IS OVER.

Much labor now employed in our many war activities will be thrown out of employment and will be hunting work when the war is over. Many of our boys who come home from "Over There" will need employment.

The expenditure of sixty million dollars for a State-wide system of 4,800 miles of hard road will not only give Illinois an unparalleled system of roads but will also furnish employment for laboring men at a time when they will need it.

And this road system is to be paid for entirely by auto license fees without one penny of taxation on any property whatever.

The building of this system of roads will bring no increase in the taxes you will pay on your home, household goods, merchandise, and other personal property, farm or real estate—the autos will pay the entire cost.

Vote YES for the Little Road Improvement Bill on Nov. 5. If you forget to mark the ballot, you will be counted as voting NO.

BEARING THE BURDEN.

No branch of business has borne a heavier burden during the war or borne it with so little complaint as the newspapers. While the profits of other enterprises were increased by the war, the profits of newspapers have been decreased. Yet the cost of operation in newspaper plants has increased fully as much as in the most remunerative war industries, says the Springfield News.

The newspapers have devoted their columns to war publicity. Millions of dollars worth of space has been given freely, and the draft, the Liberty Loan and war relief campaigns have depended almost solely upon newspaper for success. This space is to the newspaper publisher what shoes are to the shoe merchant.

The Government has paid the shoe merchant for the shoes it has used, but it has not paid the newspaper.

The newspaper publishers are not complaining at this. They have accepted it as their opportunity for service and have given their full measure.

But now comes announcement that news print paper has been advanced again by the Federal Trade Board. It is double the price it was two years ago, and apparently there is no limit to the price it may reach.

This means that the lot of the publisher is going to be much harder in the future. Some newspapers will be unable to stand up under the strain. There will be frequent consolidations, such as occurred recently in Chicago. When the war is over there will be fewer papers. But the public may rest assured that as a class, the publishers will continue to put every ounce of their ability to serve into their businesses. Service is the keynote of their philosophy.

RESTRICTING SALE OF COFFEE.

The War Trade Board acting in cooperation with the United States Food Administration announced that on and after October 14 no licenses for the importation of coffee into the United States will be issued, except to the United States Sugar Equalization Board. This organization, authorized by the War Department and approved by the President, will be administered under government direction for the seven recognized war work agencies, the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council (N. C. W. C.), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association, and the Salvation Army.

The amount is the largest ever asked for as a gift from any people in the history of the world, said Dr. Mott, "viewed as a total sum it seems gigantic, but divide by the four million men who will be under arms in our army and navy during the period it is expected to cover and you find that it means less than fifteen cents a day per man. Surely there is no father or mother or friend of a soldier in this great country who will say that fifteen cents a day is too much to spend on his church, his home over there, his library, his theatre and his club."

The President summed up the whole appeal in a recent letter in which he spoke of the work of these seven great agencies as "of vital military importance." He had in mind the fact that their activities are largely responsible for the maintenance of the splendid morale of our forces. There has never been in history so spectacular an example of the supreme importance of morale as is now being presented on the western front. The forces that confront each other there are not widely dissimilar in numbers or equipment. Yet one army is constantly withdrawing and the other irresistibly moving forward. The difference is spelled in that single word—morale.

"Napoleon said that morale is as other factors in war as three to one. General Pershing in a recent letter commenting on the work of these agencies quoted with approval the statement of one of his colonels who said 'give me nine men who live a better life and their evenings in and I will have a better fighting force than ten men would be without it.'"

"If it is worth twenty-four billion dollars to keep our boys under arms next year surely it is worth a hundred and seventy million and more to add ten per cent to their fighting edge to bring victory ten per cent nearer."

"This is the appeal of the seven united war work agencies to Americans and particularly to those four million homes where service flags fly. And we know what America's answer will be."

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

The Serbs. We must admire the fiery Serbs, who have come back so strong; their dauntless courage nothing curbs, or sidetracks, very long. We thought the Serbs had looped the loops, were done, for good and all; but they came back with ringing whoops, this most auspicious fall. They've undergone enough of it to rend the souls in two, perplexed by a brutal foe that never mercy knew. That foe believed all Serbs were canned who were not in their graves, that never, in their native land, would they be caught but slaves. The peoples everywhere believed that they with war were done; and this explains why men were moved when speaking of the Hun. And then one morning brought the news, "The Serbs are coming back! They're sprinting, in their six league shoes, upon the Bulgarian track! They prance along, with buoyant step, upon the mountain road, they're loaded up with so much pep they threaten to explode!" Oh, gallant Serbs, you suffered much, first victims of the fray, and now it simply beats the Dutch, how you put up the hay! Oh, Serbs, they made you the excuse for this atrocious war and now they wonder what the deuce they made the blunder for.

But now comes announcement

whole reply is summed up in the phrase: "Not peace negotiations, but surrender." The words are well spoken and certainly represent the composite thought and spirit of the American people. That spirit was clearly indicated by the country-wide comment on the German note recently received, which declared that note evasive and unsatisfactory—just words without sincerity or conviction.

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN.

Now that the Liberty Loan is out of the way there is just one more big task for the American people—to provide comforts of life for our boys thru the United War Work Campaign. John R. Mott, director general of the campaign, in a statement announced that Illinois will be asked to raise $12,490,000 in the week beginning November 11th, as its quota, in the great campaign of the several war work agencies.

The total amount to be raised, one hundred seventy million five hundred thousand dollars was fixed by the War Department and approved by the President. It will be administered under government direction for the seven recognized war work agencies, the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council (N. C. W. C.), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association, and the Salvation Army.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The Jacksonville W. C. T. U. having an order to call the meeting met and elected Mrs. Thomas Mason to continue as sup. of flower mission and to distribute clothing, jelly, etc. Miss Mary Spencer was re-elected Secretary, and the vice presidents from the various churches were elected. It was decided to make up some garments for children of material on hand and to pass thru the hands of the Red Cross for the Belgian children. This to be done in the homes. Any one wishing to aid may secure these of Miss Blunt, 507 South Prairie street during the noon hour and Friday from 3 to 4 p. m. was set aside as special time of prayer for the soldiers. The following poem was received by a mother in St. Louis from her son in France, just two days before she received a cablegram announcing his death.

How many, many noble boys are being called away from their quiet, peaceful homes in this country. God grant that all might be returned to us, but we know this cannot be. May He give those who are called upon to the loss of a beloved son, strength for the affliction. How much, how very, very much these boys are sacrificing—aye, their very lives. How eager we should be to give everything we have in order that these boys may be made as comfortable as possible and that this awful carnage may be ended as speedily as possible.

These boys are leaving home quietly and alone. They later quietly sail away for unknown parts. Many of them will never come back. O how we love our sons! Perhaps you have none in the service.

But your neighbor who comes home tonight, where, for eighteen or twenty years, his son's familiar greeting has cheered him, will miss that blessing. And his heart will be wrung with sadness by the absence of that boy. Let us do, not "our bit" but all that we can to help him "over there."

The poem is as follows:

"Are they praying for us at home? Are they meeting together in prayer? Or going on still in the same old way."

As they did when I was there? We thank them for their money. We thank them for their care, But oh, just tell them, Mother dear,

We are needing so much prayer. "Will you ask them to gather together, To meet at our Father's throne That we may be kept from faltering, When we feel we are standing alone?"

There are moments when courage fails us, When dangers around us stare, Oh, tell them again, dear Mother, We are needing so much prayer."

More papers and magazines are needed for the soldiers, $6 who will next entrain.

INFLUENZA CASES SHOWED INCREASE

Capt. King's Office Reported 106 New Cases Yesterday—However No Deaths Had Been Reported at 5 o'clock.

At 5 o'clock Wednesday evening 106 new cases of influenza had been reported at the office of Capt. Allen M. King, city health physician. This makes a total of 634 cases reported since the epidemic started.

However, if the number of cases recovered were deducted it is probable that the total number of cases in Jacksonville would be surprisingly small. This statement is made because of a personal knowledge of a number of cases that have recovered. This condition probably prevails in all parts of the city and would reduce the total considerably.

While the number of cases shows an increase the situation holds much encouragement to the health authorities, physicians and nurses so valiantly fighting the disease, because of the fact that at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening no deaths had been reported.

MORGAN COUNTY MONUMENT ASSOCIATION

President McDougall, chairman of the Morgan County Monument association called a meeting at the Ayers National bank yesterday afternoon for the transaction of various matters of business.

Major McDougall has been very active and successful in securing names which should be on the monument. The association decided that all veterans of the Civil War weather enlisting from Morgan county or not, should have their names on the bronze tablets of the monument. So far nearly three thousand names have been secured.

Quite a discussion arose regarding what, if any, should accompany the names. Some thought it well to add the company, regiment and state but there were two strong objections.

In the first place, as there are so many names the addition of the company and regiment would take up a great deal of space making the tablets exceedingly small as many soldiers enlisted twice and some three times and some even four times.

Again it was suggested that in many cases it would be impossible to secure the needed information of all those who did not enlist in the state as even sons and other members of the families of deceased veterans are unable to say to what body their relative belonged. In that case there would be such an irregularity that it would be undesirable, so it was finally decided to place the names only on the monument in an alphabetical order.

Progress in securing permission to proceed with the work this fall has been reported.

A full list of all the names secured is to appear in both the Journal and Courier so that any omissions know may be added.

On motion, the chair was named chairman of a committee to select suitable inscriptions to be placed on the four faces of the monument. The other members of the committee are Dr. C. H. Rammekamp, Capt. J. M. Swales and S. W. Nichols.

Rev. E. L. Fletcher was a visitor in Ashland yesterday where he went to meet members of the official board of the Methodist church.

Many of our best early citizens were mechanics, and the man who was good at his trade was surely to be respected, especially when he was also of high character. In those days almost everything was made by hand, and the man of character put much of himself into his work—unfortunately the fellow of poor character also put his weakness into what he was wanted to produce. Again it is to be remarked that the times were then more Democratic, and people were taken for what they were worth.

Among the best of such people here was Thomas W. Melindy, who came in 1823, and spent the rest of his long life with us. Mr. Melindy was a carpenter and judged by his character "at his trade was reckoned good."

Thomas W. Melindy was born in Amherst, N. H., in December, 1789. He moved to Ohio in 1819 and came here in 1832, thus being a pioneer in two states. He brought his wife and four daughters here, with him. He died August 1, 1881, being ninety one years of age, nearly half a century having been spent in this locality.

Mr. Melindy was a man of very decided views and of equally pronounced opinions of them, without fear. He looked the part for he was a strongly built, fine looking man. He was a Republican politically, and an Abolitionist by practice, being one of the proprietors of the Underground Railroad. It was something worth while to hear his strong, outspoken views handed out in Lambert's shop, for instance, which was sort of a forum to our old Romans, along with the old Market House in the square, now Park.

Among the men thus practically opposing Slavery Mr. Melindy was named, and there when needed. Eames has his picture with others of the most vigorous opponents of that iniquity. Slavery, in the "History of Jacksonville and Morgan county."

In religious matters Mr. Melindy was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

The Journal, in an obituary notice of Mr. Melindy, had this, in part, to say of him:

"* * * Aside from being esteemed by all who knew him, he became, as it were, renowned for his probity, uprightness and integrity in all his ways, for his adhesion to principle, and his firm tenacity of purpose. * * * He has always been a prominent citizen, having served the town of Jacksonville as far back as 1836, in the capacity of town trustee; as a capable, trustworthy and thoroly honorable man, he cannot be too highly spoken of; and at last after a life of usefulness, longer than is usually accorded to modern men, he has in his 91st year laid down his life and gone to claim his reward before the bar of God. His life was irreproachable, his death uncomplaining, his eternal existence in the realm of glory is assured. What more can we desire for him?"

Mr. Melindy dwelt for a time in the second house on the north side of Court street, just west of West street, going afterward to a larger house on West State street, immediately west of Scott Block, and his last residence of himself and two daughters was at the south west corner of Court and Prairie streets.

The Melindy Girls.

As stated, Mr. Melindy had four daughters, one or two of whom, the writer thinks, married early and moved away. Two remained here. Of these, Miss Malvina C. was graduated from the Jacksonville Female Academy in 1850. This lady and her sister kept a children's school for years in a little building between their father's house and the alley east of it, and they did a good work to such a number of our best people can still attest.

The writer never knew Mrs. Melindy, and supposes she passed on many years ago. The older one, presumably, of the two daughters, also went to her rest twenty or thirty years ago, and Miss Malvina was the last of the family here. She remained in the Phillips street house until about 1890 or 1895, when she was laid in Diamond Grove.

Miss Malvina C. Melindy was one of those fine people of attractive appearance and manners that often come of New England ancestry, and she maintained her quiet and dignified life to the last.

She and an older sister went upon the excursion from here to Meredosia, when the Northern Cross railroad was opened from Meredosia to this place in 1839. Miss Malvina and Mrs. Robert T. Osborne, so far as known to the writer, were the last survivors of that early and important event. Miss Melindy surviving Mrs. Osborne a short time. Younger people may know that this trip was the beginning of what is now the great Wabash railway system.

This is too little of the life history of one of the beneficent families which helped to build up good things in Jacksonville and in Illinois, and they should not be allowed to be forgotten.

Miss Maude Weeks of Arenzville was a shopper with Jacksonville merchants yesterday.

Miss Ethel Hubbs of Prentice was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Robert Seymour of Franklin was a traveler to the city yesterday.

John Mutch helped represent Lynnville and vicinity in the city yesterday.

Claude Sangtang of Meredosia was among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Miss Clara Walbaum of Ashland was a shopper with city people yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harding helped represent Ashland in the city yesterday.

L. L. Masterode of the south part of the county was a city visitor yesterday.

Henry Harter of Ashland was in the city yesterday on his way to Winchester with the remains of the late Rev. Mr. Groves.

Marie and Nina Vieira of 1004 North Diamond street, who are confined to bed with influenza, are slowly improving.

Charles C. Carter who was called here because of the death of his son, Pitner Carter, has returned to Beaumont, Texas.

Miss Etta Decker of St. Louis, who was called here to attend the funeral of Pitner Carter, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott P. Carter.

Gay Hutson and Elmer Elden enlisted in the aviation corps in Chicago a short time since and will go soon to their command at Long Island.

Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Cunningham of Peking, China, are visiting at the home of Mr. Cunningham's brother, Robert Cunningham, of 911 West College avenue.

C. C. Carter expected to return to his home in Beaumont, Texas yesterday. His son Charles Pitner Carter was in Beaumont and was brought here for burial. Mr. Carter expects to return to Jacksonville next spring and make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hopper have returned to their home in Denver, Colorado. Mr. Hopper has been with the Denver Dry Goods Store since he left Jacksonville eighteen years ago. For the past year he has been in New York as buyer for the store. He expects on his return to Denver to take up a position in the store. Their daughter, Miss Alma remained in Washington to spend the winter with Mrs. Mabel Stearns.

WEARING SAFETY MASKS

The matter of wearing safety masks is being agitated and followed by some. It is deemed a wise safeguard and doesn't seriously interfere with work or business though it is not very pleasant to see but that is a small matter. It may become more common if the disease prevailing fails to let go its grip.

Yankee Flyers Search for Enemy Planes at Night

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Oct. 22.—Tuesday. (By The Associated Press.)—Searching the skies at night for German aviators has become the newest trick of the American flyers, who are already alluding to themselves as "night air eyes." When the enemy bombing planes came in groups one after the other on Monday night the American night flyers went out in force to hunt for them. Amor—the Americans was Major Harold Hartney of Pasadena, Cal., who got nearer to the Germans than any other of our flyers. "I was so close to one Boche," Major Hartney said, "that I could see his tracer bullets shoot in groundward. In the moonlight the German was attempting to strafe the roadways thinking he saw troops."

"The trace bullets at intervals shot thru the air like lightning flashes and I followed them here and there but I could not see the Boche. Then I maneuvered and tried to get the German between myself and the moon but I never could see him."

These night patrols are continuing, even when the weather is cloudy the Americans flyers going out in relays until dawn.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

President Wilson has answered Germany's latest note regarding peace. In brief he informs Germany that the only armistice he would feel justified in submitting for consideration to the allied governments would be one which would leave the United States and the allied powers in a position to enforce any arrangements that may be entered into and to make a renewal of hostilities on the part of Germany impossible. To this end the president has transmitted his correspondence with the present German authorities to the allied powers. "Not peace negotiations, but surrender," will be the demand if the United States has to deal with the military masters and the monarchial authorities of Germany.

The allied armies in France and Belgium are still driving the Germans toward their border, but the process is now comparatively slow. On the sectors that are requisite to the stability of the entire German line—where a crash thru probably would mean the immediate collapse of the whole of the defensive system—the most stubborn resistance is being offered by the enemy and what gains are being made by the allies are virtually foot by foot in the face of the horns of the battle line—the machine guns.

Particularly vicious fighting in progress west of the Meuse river where the Americans in their endeavors to overcome the natural obstacles barring the way northward to Sedan are faced by picked troops with orders to hold them back at all costs, in the region from LeCateau to the north of Valenciennes, where the British and some Americans gradually are tearing their way thru the enemy's front and between Tournai and Audenarde, where the British also are hard after the enemy. Notwithstanding the frantic endeavors of the enemy to maintain their positions on all these sectors material progress has been made. Likewise north-east of Laon the French on an eight mile front have delivered a thrust that carried them forward from two to three miles. Into the hands of the British have fallen 2,000 more German prisoners, while the Americans on the western bank of the Meuse also have gathered in numbers of the enemy and a considerable quantity of his machine guns. Veritable nests of machine guns are being encountered by the Americans as they attempt to press forward along the front from the Meuse to the town of Grand Pre, situated north of the Argonne forest, but in spite of these obstacles they have taken further ground and at last accounts were steadily keeping up their pressure against the enemy. Extremely heavy counter-attacks have been successfully sustained north of Grand Pre, and on this sector particularly strong concentrations of enemy artillery fire have gone almost for naught. On the western bank of the Meuse the town of Brulle has been taken the enemy having burned and evacuated it and retreated in the general direction of Dun. Exactly what has been accomplished by the French in a drive northeast of Laon except that they have gained over a wide front has not yet become apparent, but it brings appreciably nearer Mont Cornet, the last important railroad junction in this region.

North and south of Valenciennes, Field Marshal Haig has continued his attacks against the Germans and everywhere made good progress. Between LeCateau and Solesmes, a sharp wedge has been driven into the German line, threatening the town of Maubeuge on the east and outflanking Valenciennes on the south.

North of Valenciennes the town of Bruay has been captured, virtually making Valenciennes untenable for the enemy. To the north of this region the British have reached the west bank of the Scheldt canal.

Already the British are in the western outskirts of Valenciennes where hard fighting is in progress the Germans having posted machine guns innumerable on the eastern bank of the canal which runs to the center of the city. In northern Belgium, the Germans are still retiring. Unofficial reports are to the effect that Ghent is being evacuated.

Groce.
Alth weather conditions were bad Wednesday afternoon, a large number of parishioners and appreciative friends of Ashland, together with friends and relatives of Scott county, gathered at the Gillham cemetery, near Winchester, for the funeral of Rev. E. N. Groce.

The funeral services were in charge of the Rev. A. A. Todd, of Jacksonville. These men were close friends for the past few years, both having attended the same college and both later being in the same Baptist association.

Dr. Todd, with feeling and sympathy, spoke of the splendid character of the deceased, a man loved because of his Christ-like life; a man trusted because of his deep sincerity; a man respected because he was a Christian gentleman.

One was quoted as saying: "I want to live as long as I can; as well as I can; and serve my Master as faithfully as I can." Rev. Mr. Groce, in the Providence of God, perhaps did not get to live as long as he wished, but all who knew him were ready to say, he lived well, and served his Master faithfully.

Rev. W. R. Johnson of Winchester, assisted in the service, reading appropriate passages of Scripture and offering a prayer of much comfort to the bereaved. Mr. and Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Walbaum sang in a beautiful manner some of Rev. Mr. Groce's favorite hymns.

Obituary.
Rev. E. N. Groce was born in Scott County, Ill., Oct. 21, 1876, where he was brought up on a farm and received his early education.

Mr. Groce was married to Miss Susan Huddleston July 4th, 1898. This union two children were born, Fletch and Chester, both living at home.

Being of a genial Christian character, and feeling the call of God to enter the gospel ministry he entered Shurtleff college, Alton, Ill., where after a hard struggle of twelve years with much sickness in the family, and every dollar to earn himself, he graduated with high honors.

Later he took his family to Rochester, N. J., and entered the Baptist Theological Seminary, doing pastoral work in connection with his studies. He graduated from the Seminary in June of 1910 and immediately came to the First Baptist church of Ashland, Ill., where he has since endeared himself to all the congregation and to the citizens of Ashland in general.

Rev. Mr. Groce was a scholarly man and a growing minister. The church at Ashland was doing a large and constructive work when the sad end came. Taking sick on Oct. 11th, he passed to his Heavenly reward on Oct. 21, 1913.

Brother Groce leaves to mourn his untimely loss, a wife, who greatly assisted him in his work; two children, an aged mother, one half brother and one half sister.

It May Mean Eczema, Scrofula—the First Sign of Inherited Blood Disease

Pimples, scaly itching skin, rashes, burning sensations and scrofula denote with unfailing certainty a debilitated, weakened and impure state of the blood. The trouble may have been in your blood from birth but no matter how you were infected, you must treat it thru the blood. It is a blood disease. You must use S. S. S., the standard blood tonic for 50 years. If you expect certain relief. For purifying the system, nothing is equal to it. The action of S. S. S. is to cleanse the blood. It soaks through the system direct to the seat of the trouble—acting as an antidote to neutralize the blood poisons. DESPONDENCY CAUSES SUICIDE

L. R. Caldwell Kills Self by Shooting—Was Manager of Delco Light System—Inquest Today.

Despondent because of poor business, L. R. Caldwell, manager of the Delco Light Co., committed suicide by shooting at his home, 227 East College street about 10:15 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Caldwell was lying on a couch at the time and placed the revolver, a 32 calibre to his right temple. The bullet passed thru the head coming out behind the left ear and was found on the floor by a library table several feet away.

His wife was the only one in the room at the time. She said that he came home about 8 o'clock and told her that he was going to kill himself. She said she had talked him out of it for some time. About 10 o'clock he was lying down on the couch and had the revolver under the covering. His wife stepped to the door and looked out. As she did so he put the revolver to his head and pulled the trigger. Death was instantaneous.

His daughter immediately ran to the business section of the city and found officer Kennedy and notified him of the deed. Coroner Rose was notified and the body was removed to the undertaking parlors of W. W. Gillham and prepared for burial. Coroner Rose will empanel a jury and hold an inquest this afternoon at Gillham's undertaking parlors.

Mrs. Caldwell said that her husband had never talked of killing himself before but on this occasion seemed to be considerably excited. After she had induced him to lie down, one of his daughters brought him a drink of water. After he drank it he seemed to be easier and wanted her to go up stairs. She refused to do so saying, she would stay until he was ready to go.

L. R. Caldwell was 39 years of age and came to Jacksonville last February and was in charge of the Delco Light agency, which is located on South Maudslayi street. Prior to that he resided in Peoria for thirteen years where he engaged in the contracting business. Mr. Caldwell was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

Besides his widow, he is survived by three daughters. He also leaves four brothers, one of whom resides in Galesburg, Word has been sent to him and until they hear from him no funeral arrangements will be made.

HIRE AFTER MANY YEARS
After an absence of thirty years H. Noone is visiting Jacksonville with his family. He is now a resident of Omaha, the metropolis of Nebraska, and is renewing some of the acquaintances of his youth. He says he sees hardly a person he recognizes about the town. He carries a watch he bought of Russell & Lyon and said he meant to tell Mr. Russell that the time piece was all right. He recalls the Rapp brothers when they were small boys and T. M. Tomlinson's father but hardly any other merchant about the place is known to him.

His wife was a Miss McCabe of Manchester and they will visit in that vicinity as well as at Litterberry and other places about the country. He is also visiting the family of James Murphy to whom he is related. He speaks most highly of Omaha which he says is the most wide awake, progressive place on the map. Loafers there or strangers who seem to have leisure on their hands must at once give an account of themselves or be hustled into the army or some place of usefulness. Speaking of newspapers there he says the Bee went down perceptibly when Rosewater died. Senator Hitchcock was a man at one time without means but was popular and well liked and people helped him till he made a success of the World-Herald. Another paper there is the News and though it is not as substantial as the others it is newsworthy and people take it. It is somewhat on the order of the Donnybrook fair, striking a head whenever it appears and has many libel suits on its hands but still people read it.

MADE BURLINGTON WAY MAP

J. S. Jackson of Kansas City was here yesterday to meet Burlington Way officials and to talk about that route. Mr. Jackson, who makes a specialty of road maps, has made a map of the Burlington Way based on his personal inspection. He went to New Orleans and then traveled north. He is very enthusiastic about the "Way" and believes that the road conditions are destined to continue to improve because of the interest of the people. In the south this is particularly true and some of the most prominent citizens of New Orleans and other southern states are enthusiastic Burlington Way boosters.

GREENE COUNTY PHYSICIANS MEET

Held Meeting in Council Room at White Hall—Other Greene County News Notes.

White Hall, Oct. 23.—A special meeting of the Greene County Medical Society was held at four o'clock Tuesday in the city council room at White Hall, the meeting being hastily called in response to a telegram from C. St. Claire Drake of Springfield, secretary of the state board of health, who requested the appointment of an advisory committee of three members to co-operate with the local boards of health of Greene county. The committee named consists of Drs. H. W. Chapman, White Hall; H. W. Smith, Roodhouse, and E. H. Resman, Carrollton. There was a representative attendance, and the influenza epidemic was given consideration, but there was no attendance on the part of the public.

The correspondent was tendered the courtesy of an interview by Dr. H. W. Chapman at the close of the session. Dr. Chapman is a leading surgeon of this section, and his voice is given respectful and profound hearing in state councils of the medical fraternity. He stated that the present epidemic is greatly exaggerated, citing as evidence that no formal report is being made of cases of influenza in White Hall, it having been the decision of the local board of health to estimate the number of cases. A comparison of notes among local physicians reveals that there could have been no more than 150 cases in White Hall, and the papers were informed that the maximum number was 250. Dr. Chapman said that his observation fails to reveal serious cases, in numbers there having been only two fatal cases resulting from influenza since the disease was first detected here three weeks ago today. The great majority of cases is in mild form, and these are readily yielding to reasonable care on part of the patient, although they may expect to feel very sick for two or three days. The severe cases grow out of complications, of course, as influenza demands at least reasonable care. There are less than 100 cases at White Hall at the present time. The epidemic has been gradually abating for the past three or four days.

White Hall News Notes.

T. N. Rose was taken back to St. Louis Monday and placed in a hospital for further surgical treatment. His condition is discouraging. He was conveyed to St. Louis in George North's big touring car, and was accompanied by Messrs. North and H. O. Tunison.

A daughter, third child, now graves the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Neutman.

Miss Jennie Fairbanks is spending a few weeks in the east. Any one wishing literature explaining the $60,000,000 State Road Bond issue will be supplied on application to R. B. Pearce, secretary. The proposition should be given a practically unanimous vote at the November election, and it will receive a big vote if the voters can be made to realize that failure to vote for it is equivalent to a vote against bringing Illinois out of the mud.

C. A. Ruckel, county president, is the first to come out with an automobile banner for the road bonds, and if any one wishes to secure a banner of this kind they should confer with Mr. Ruckel.

Lucius Vandavey, aged sixteen years, is at the point of death with influenza at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vandavey, and he can not survive the night. His case is the second fatal one at White Hall growing out of the influenza epidemic.

Congressman H. T. Rainey was in Roodhouse Sunday evening, having come there from attending the funeral of Congressman Sterling at Bloomington. He says that the government ownership or control of railroads has come to stay and admitted that the position would have to be fought out as a political issue before being finally determined, saying that it would be an issue in the forthcoming presidential campaign. Mr. Rainey said that Woodrow Wilson would be the Democratic standard bearer again, and that Roosevelt would head the Republican ticket. He might have proceeded a little farther with his predicting and added that Mr. Rainey himself will be Wilson's running mate and Frank O. Lowden will be Roosevelt's running mate. Mr. Rainey related many interesting incidents connected with world war and America's entry into it.

ARRIVED FROM NEW MEXICO

Yesterday morning a Dodge car stopped in front of Lane's book store and it bore evidence of belonging to a tourist and company as it was equipped with sundry articles which would be used on such an expedition and investigation disclosed a very polite young lady who courteously answered the reporter's questions, making known the fact that the car was the property of Benjamin Ames of Roswell, New Mexico. About two weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Ames started for Denver where their daughter, Miss Betty, the young lady mentioned above, and their son Benjamin were in school. Taking them in the car the family started toward the rising sun prepared to camp when weather favored and otherwise to patronize hotels.

En route they had a slight attack of influenza but open air, good constitutions and prompt remedies soon dissipated the disease and they proceeded on their way and arrived in due season at the home of Mr. Ames' brother, Prof. J. G. Ames of Illinois college. The young people will attend the college and the parents will visit a while in the city.

Six of the family of Miles Fitzpatrick of Woodson are down.

Dr. A. M. King was a little better yesterday.

BURLINGTON WAY OFFICIALS MEET

Conference Held at Dunlap Hotel—Many Matters of Importance Discussed.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Burlington Way was held at the Dunlap Hotel Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Much of importance was discussed, a number of matters were adjusted and steps taken to carry out some changes in the routing of the trail.

Those present at the meeting were: President, J. C. Reintges, Granite City, Ill.; General vice president, W. H. Holsteen, Burlington, Iowa, general secretary, H. C. Wilhite, Greenfield, a assistant secretary, Frank Merrill, Roodhouse; Chief Engineer, Edwin H. White, Springfield; State vice president, Frank R. Sweet, Sherman.

A meeting had been scheduled to be held at Rochester, Minnesota, the coming week. However, a telegram was received from E. C. Hackett of Rochester postponing the meeting because of the prevailing epidemic of influenza.

The question to have been brought up at that time was the proposed new routing of the Burlington Way between Rochester and St. Paul. The matter will be taken up at a later date and a committee has been appointed consisting of General vice president, W. H. Holsteen, General secretary, H. C. Wilhite and Chief Engineer E. C. White.

Will Inspect New Route
This committee will inspect the proposed changes and confer with the interested parties at Rochester, St. Paul, Minneapolis and intermediate points. If in the judgment of the committee the proposed change of routing between St. Paul and Rochester and a proposed new branch to be known as the University Cut-off connecting from Cannon Falls into Minneapolis are considered feasible and can be made in a manner satisfactory to the cities interested the committee is given power to act favorably in any event the decision of the committee will be final.

A grant of an extension from St. Paul to Duluth was given provided that the by-laws in such cases are complied with. A grant for a new division of the Burlington Way between Monmouth and Rock Island via Alcedo was also subject to the approval of the inspection committee composed of Wilhite, Holsteen and White which will be over the proposed route next week. The usual compliance with the by-laws in such cases must also be carried out.

Great interest is being manifested in the Burlington Way in the cities of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Rochester. Every assistance will be given by officials for the extension of the Orange and White trail northward.

CHAPIN WOMEN ARE PATRIOTIC

Make Pillows for Sick Soldiers at Camp Taylor—Funeral of Richard Medlock Held—Chapin News Notes.

Chapin, Oct. 23.—Some of the patriotic ladies of Chapin hearing of the great number of our boys sick with the "flu" at Camp Taylor, decided to get busy and make some pillows so for the past two weeks they have been very busy and as a result have sent 118 pillows, fourteen of them being of feathers. Everything was cheerfully donated, even money for muslin for the pillow slips and some new ticking. Walter Bobbitt very kindly gave them a room and a stove and fuel and lights were also given. Everyone worked with a will and did not mind the blistered fingers.

The funeral of Mr. Medlock was held at the home Sunday afternoon. There being no minister available, the service was conducted by W. Woodward, an elder in the Christian church.

Miss Nina Pond who has been very ill with the influenza the past two weeks is now able to go where she wishes. Her sister, Miss Iva, is now confined to her bed with the same ailment.

Dr. Roberts reports a large number of new cases of the "flu." Harry Rickey and Will Dickens of Bethel are both very sick. Five cases are reported at Willis Rickey's.

Mrs. Alice Anderson and Mrs. Doll Roberts motored to Mowqua last Tuesday for a short visit with friends and relatives. They returned home Friday evening.

Mrs. Della Knopp is visiting her sister, at New London, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bridgman received a letter this morning from their son Ray who is somewhere in France, the first word they had received since July. It is needless to say they were rejoiced.

Miss Opal Blair of Arenville is visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Blair.

WITH THE SICK

Leslie Dugan of South Kosciusko street is down with the flu. Mrs. Roy Crouse, east of the city, is better.

Mrs. Martha Happy, 435 South Clay avenue, is suffering with a chronic ailment.

The family of Thomas Flynn, south of the city are all down. John Wagner of the force at the Schmalz grocery, is recovering.

Michael White, the clothing salesman, is not expected to live. He has something like paralysis.

Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Cherry's Livery was left with but one of the regular force on duty, aside from the bookkeeper and "Johnnie" Vasconcellos, manager. That they were able to secure sufficient extra help to properly care for the large amount of business that necessarily compelled, speaks well for the management of that institution.

NEW RULING ON WAR BUILDING MATERIALS

W. Barr Brown, chairman of the Non War Construction Board of Morgan county has issued the following new rulings regarding the use of building materials during the war. Rule 2 of Circular No. 21 has been changed to read as follows:

"Repairs of or extensions to existing buildings involving in the aggregate a cost of not exceeding $2,500 and new construction for farm purposes only involving in the aggregate a cost not exceeding $1,000."

Doubt has existed as to whether repairs and additions in towns and cities within the $2,500 limit required a permit and Mr. Lloyd states positively they do NOT require a permit.

FRED EYRE GOES BACK TO HIS FIRST LOVE

Will Take Charge of Consolidated Express Companies in This City—Has Recently Been Employed at Ayers National Bank

Fred Eyre, formerly manager of the Wells Fargo Express company in this city will today enter upon his duties as general manager of the consolidated express companies. Mr. Eyre since his retirement from the Wells Fargo office has been employed at the Ayers National bank as bookkeeper, resigning his position Wednesday evening.

Mr. Eyre began his career in the express business with the Wells Fargo company in this city as driver. He was soon promoted to a clerkship and displayed such proficiency that when a vacancy occurred at Havana he was given charge of that office and served acceptably for four years.

When J. W. Jackson was transferred to Springfield, Mr. Eyre was brought from Havana and placed in charge of the local office. He still made good and when the government took over the companies consolidated them for war economy Mr. Eyre was selected as general manager. However, some differences arose and he did not accept the position at that time.

Mr. Eyre is a thorough express man and no doubt will bring the express business up to a state of efficiency that has always marked his conduct of the business.

I. J. Million who has been in charge of the local office will be transferred to another point. However, his destination is not known at this time.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

The work of a Social Service League is of necessity done in a quiet unobtrusive way; details are not generally made public, though the records are always available to interested parties. For these reasons, perhaps, the general public is not aware of the aims and purposes of the League and its value to our community.

Real social service consists not merely in furnishing material aid, though immediate needs are always relieved where possible, but in so mapping out a plan for future action as to minimize or altogether remove the need for future outside help. Carrying out the idea in the old adage, "God helps those who help themselves," the workers endeavor to show dependents the way to independence, to teach untrained housekeepers how to buy intelligently and to find work for those able to work.

A trained charity worker is an asset to any community; her work actually saves money for those who employ her. Every individual, every family raised from a dependent to an independent basis of living relieves the taxpayers of so much responsibility and expense and makes a good citizen out of a poor one.

The poor we shall always have with us, but much of their suffering can be alleviated by intelligent care and supervision.

Every member of a community, therefore, should be willing and glad to contribute to the work of the league for economic, if for no other reasons.

GARDNER WOOD IS COMMISSIONED CAPTAIN

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wood Receives Promotion—It With Engineering Corps in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wood have received word of the promotion of their son First Lieutenant Gardner Wood to a captaincy.

Capt. Wood graduated from the engineering department of the University of Illinois. While at school he was commissioned a captain in the students training corps and later received a commission in the National Guard from Governor Dunne. This makes his third commission as captain which is an unusual record.

Mr. Wood was commissioned a second lieutenant soon after the war was declared. Within five days he was advanced to a first lieutenant. He is connected with second engineering corps and was among the first American troops in France. He has been assigned to headquarters and judging from the manner in which promotions are coming is making good.

86% of the people of Illinois live within five miles of the proposed Sixty Million Dollar State-wide system of hard roads.

The autos of Illinois will pay for the 4800 miles of pavement. There will be no taxation of any kind levied to pay for the system. It will carry about one-half of the state's highway traffic. The routes will extend into every county and touch almost every town of over 2,000.

If the voters say "yes" in November the system will be completed within five years after the close of the war and will give our state an unparalleled system of hard roads and at the same time afford employment for idle labor after the war is over.

If you want a hard road system in the near future, vote YES on the little Road Improvement Ballot.

BOND BUYING IS VOLUNTARY

Many town and village officials in this district of the United States court have the idea that because a person does not subscribe to the Liberty Loan, he is guilty of a crime, and according to federal officials some persons have been coerced into buying bonds. They have been writing to United States District Attorney Edward C. Knotts, wanting persons who did not subscribe to the loan prosecuted.

In connection with the request coming to his office, Mr. Knotts, issued the following statement:

"I am receiving complaints from various parts of the district by local officials of the Fourth Liberty Loan organization against persons who either did not subscribe for bonds at all or in amounts deemed inadequate. Such officials are under the impression that such persons can and should be prosecuted. This is wholly a mistaken notion, as subscriptions to all Liberty Loan issues by the government are purely voluntary and no person will be prosecuted for not subscribing to the same."

Some cases of actual coercion have been reported by subscribers and this, if true, is much to be regretted, as it belies the aims and ideals of the government in the war.

HARRY HADDEN WRITES

Harry J. Hadden, well known young man of this city, now located at Camp Johnston, Fla., Service Park Co., No. 1, has written friends here that he is thoroughly enjoying army life and feeling fine, had a touch of the "flu," but got rid of it in short order. Harry says that their camp has been under quarantine but that the death rate has been remarkably low. He also states that he is Supply Sergeant for his company, composed mostly of expert mechanics and every one is hoping that they will be made a part of the motor transport corps recently organized as a separate branch of the army, and that they will soon see foreign service.

Mr. Weeks has just returned from one of his periodical trips to the south, this time covering a large portion of southern Louisiana. He states that the rice harvest in that section is in bad condition, due to various causes, but that there is a big crop of cane ready to harvest that will run greater than any year for a long period. Mr. Weeks' specialty is farm lands and he operates extensively throughout the southwest.

TAPS SOUNDED FOR LIEUT. LLOYD MALONE

Jacksonville Boy Pays Supreme Sacrifice at Rich Field, Waco, Texas.

Another of Jacksonville's young men has made the supreme sacrifice, first answering the call of his country, and then the call of his Maker, a young man in the prime and vigor of his manhood, well known and universally liked, a good citizen, a dutiful and loving son and brother.

Lieut. Lloyd Malone answered final "taps" at 7:40 p. m., Tuesday, Oct. 22, death being due to lobar pneumonia following an attack of influenza, according to a message received here Wednesday morning by his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Malone. Death occurred at Rich Field, Waco, Texas.

Mrs. Malone had received word Monday that her son was seriously ill and had wired asking if it was thought that he could survive until her arrival. The encouragement received was so slight that she had not started on the long journey south when the message reached her that Lloyd had passed beyond.

While Mrs. Malone perhaps felt within her heart that this was her boy's last illness, yet she could not but hope that he would be spared to her in her widowhood. The communication of his death came as a terrible shock to the mother who so bravely and lovingly has worked to the end that her children might have the educational and other advantages which would enable them to take their rightful places in the world. And it may well be said that this mother's boys, Lloyd, now "gone over" and Julian, at present in the war service chemical department, have done honor to a loving woman's precepts and example.

Lieut. Lloyd Malone was born in Jacksonville, April 6, 1890, and grew to manhood here, receiving his education in the public and high schools of this city. He was one of four brothers, two of whom died while quite young.

Lloyd Malone enlisted in the navy while quite a young boy, and served four years. The day war was declared, April 6, 1917, which by coincidence was Lloyd's birthday, and it is also his brother Julian's birthday, he enlisted in the army. He was first sent to San Antonio, where he was in the first 6,000 men who helped to establish Kelly field. After a number of months there, he was detailed with 150 men to go to Chanute Field, at Rantoul, Ill., where he spent five months.

He went from here to Chicago, where he was commissioned first lieutenant in the airplane service. On account of a defective eye he was forbidden to fly, and was sent to Rich Field at Waco, Texas, with the 39th air squadron. He has been at this field since last December.

He was slated for promotion, which was soon to be his.

Lieut. Malone was married several years ago to Miss Ottillie Seegar of Jacksonville, who died within a year after their marriage.

Lieut. Malone was a Mason, first uniting with the lodge at Beardstown, then transferring his membership to Rantoul, and later to Waco, Texas.

The remains will be shipped here for burial. Announcement of the time of this will be made later.

RETURNS FROM DENVER

Mrs. C. C. Patchen returned home Tuesday from Denver, Colorado, where she went to attend the funeral of her brother, Henry Reed, who died Oct. 15th, at St. Luke's hospital with influenza-pneumonia. Mrs. Patchen's brother, S. A. Reed of Flora, Illinois, accompanied her.

Henry P. Reed was born near Richview, Illinois, March 8, 1873. He later moved to Morgan county with his parents. Mr. Reed received his early education in the Chapin public schools. At the time of his death, he was in the employ of the Denver & Salt Lake Railroad. On June 12, 1911, he was united in marriage to Miss Dorothy Finley, formerly a teacher at the Franklin school of this city. He leaves his wife and five year old daughter, Betty Lee, of Denver, and the following brothers and sisters besides his aged father of Mount Vernon, Illinois: Mrs. A. S. Culler, Beardstown, Ill.; O. L. Reed, Denver, Col.; S. A. Reed, Flora, Ill.; Mrs. Ezra Wyatt, Springfield, Ill.; and Mrs. C. C. Patchen of this city. His mother and one brother preceded him in death fifteen years ago. He was a fine man, upright and liked by his employers, friends and those who knew him. Mr. Reed has many friends in Chapin and Morgan county, who will be saddened by his untimely death.
